Mission Statement

Dedicated to providing programs and supporting programs and supporting activities directed at reducing teen pregnancy, addressing the negative consequences of teen pregnancy and improving outcomes for teen parent's in New Mexico

- NMTPC has been the statewide non-profit organization committed to reducing teen pregnancy in New Mexico since 1989.
- NMTPC works closely with community organizations and state agencies to encourage an ongoing, coordinated and well-planned teen pregnancy prevention effort.
- NMTPC provides New Mexico with the best and latest information, training, and research on teen pregnancy through : Conferences, Training, Networking, Statewide Technical Assistance to Communities, Publications: Reports, Data, Directories and Newsletters, Monthly Electronic NEWS FLASH , Hispanic Community Outreach, Youth Art and Video Contest, Web site: www.nmtpc.org and www.youngfathers.org, Plain Talk/Hablando Claro South Valley, Mesquite, Vado, and Del Cerro

New Mexico Young Fathers Project

Mission Statement

Our mission is to promote social and family stability by improving the quality of father/child relationships in young families and by preventing repeat pregnancies

Plain Talk/Hablando Claro

Mission Statement

To increase adult/teen communication about sex, increase sexually active teens' access to contraceptives, and to decrease the number of unwanted pregnancies, STDs and HIV/AIDS.

Plain Talk is a neighborhood-based initiative aimed at helping adults, parents, and community leaders develop the skills and tools they need to communicate effectively with young people about reducing adolescent sexual risk-taking.

Education + Communication + Access to contraceptives = Fewer unwanted pregnancies & STDs

Teen Outreach Program

Mission Statement

To prevent adolescent problem behaviors by enhancing normative processes of social development and to engage young people in a high level of structured, volunteer community service that is closely linked to classroom-based discussions of future life options such as those surrounding future career and relationship decisions.

Teen Outreach is a program based on the principles of positive youth development that is designed to meet the needs of adolescents during the transitional period in which they are growing into adulthood. TOP combines curriculum-guided experiential activities and discussion plus community service work in a program that supports positive youth development and prevents negative youth behaviors, such as early pregnancy and school failure.

Raíces y Alas

Mission Statement

To increase parents confidence to talk with their children about sex and sexuality and to help parents give their children a solid foundation of knowledge to make healthy decisions regarding their health and relationships.

Cuidate

Mission Statement

Cuidate is a cultural and theory-based HIV sexual risk-reduction program designed specifically for Latino youth.

The Cuidate program is an adaptation of the Be Proud! Be Responsible! program. The theme of Cuidate is women throughout the program.
