Youth Development, Inc's administrative offices are comprised of the Human Resources Department, the Finance Department and the Purchasing Department.

1. Human Resources Department

6301 Central, NW Albuquerque, NM 87105

The YDI Human Resources Department believes that YDI's employees are the most important stakeholders in our organization and that they are fully committed to carrying out our mission. YDI's Human Resources Department is dedicated to providing a safe and healthy work environment free of discrimination.

YDI employs over 500 well trained and dedicated employees, all of whom are carefully processed in-house to assure that we hire the best candidates possible to serve our communities. In addition to recruitment and selection, the Human Resources Department oversees compensation and benefits, employee relations, risk management, and employee records. Our department specializes in establishing and implementing policies, procedures, and rules that treat employees fairly; always adhering to federal and state employment laws and regulations.

For more information, contact Donna Martinez, HR Director or any HR staff member at (505) 831-6038 or send an e-mail to hrdept@ydinm.org

2. Finance Department

6301 Central, NW Albuquerque, NM 87105

The Finance Department is responsible for preparing and maintaining all financial records for the organization and for implementing an accounting system which conforms to Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) and program requirements as mandated by YDI's various funding sources. Additionally the department ensures that internal control procedures are in place to safeguard the assets of the organization and facilitates the annual audit performed by an independent auditing firm.

The finance department also has the responsibility to implement procedures and to maintain supporting documentation in order to substantiate that costs charged to various funding sources are allowable, allocable and reasonable.

YDI's accounting system is designed to ensure that accounting records provide documentation needed to separately identify the receipt and expenditures of Federal, State, County, Local and matching funds and provide accurate and current financial information.

For more information contact John Melendez, Chief Financial Officer at 505 831-6038 or via email at jmelendez@ydinm.org

3. Purchasing Department

6301 Central, NW Albuquerque, NM 87105

The Purchasing Department is a division within the Finance Department and is charged with the responsibility to purchase all materials, supplies, equipment and services in support of Youth Development, Inc.'s programs and administration. The Department strives to purchase in a timely manner, through centralized control and on the best value basis possible, consistent with all applicable laws and regulations.

It is the policy of YDI to use small or minority owned businesses whenever possible. Contracts are awarded only to those contractors that have demonstrated that they are capable of providing required materials supplies or services

For more information contact the Purchasing Director, Mr. George Bello at 505 831-6038 or via email at gbello@ydinm.org

Counties Operated In: Sandoval

This program provides an alternative to detention for youth age 13-18 that are probation violators or drug court clients. All clients must be court ordered and accompanied by a referral from the Sandoval County Juvenile Probation office. The program also serves referrals from the Rio Rancho Public Schools for long term expelled youth.

For more information, contact Louis Pacias, Associate Director for PIT Division at (505) 831-6038 or send an e-mail to pit@ydinm.org.

2. Juvenile Community Corrections

1424 Deborah Road, Suite 102, Rio Rancho, NM 87124

428 South Los Lentos Road, Los Lunas, NM 87031

1500 Walter SE, Albuquerque, NM 87102

P.O. Box 1988, Cuba, NM 87013

Counties Operated In: Bernalillo, Sandoval, Valencia

Juvenile Community Corrections provides pre-sentencing alternatives to children's courts in three counties for more than 300 adjudicated juveniles each year that might otherwise be institutionalized.

Each client is court ordered and must adhere to a specific plan of care that includes intensive supervision, educational and employment assistance, community service and/or victim restitution and institutional transition services.

Juvenile Community Corrections programs in Valencia and Sandoval counties are modeled after the successful Bernalillo County Juvenile Community Corrections program.

The program also provides services for youth in the institutions in preparation for successful reintegration home and even has an Emergency Fund for eligible clients.

For more information, contact Bruce Battle, Program Director at (505) 842-8183 or 896-1310 or send an e-mail to pit@ydinm.org

Health Programs

1. Health Programs

Counties Operated In: Bernalillo, Valencia, Sandoval

The Health Programs provide HIV/AIDS prevention, intervention and education services for clients and their families. The Health Programs consist of Harm Reduction/Needle Exchange, Alternative Lifestyles Outreach, Heterosexual at-Risk and Injecting Drug Users. This unique program combines street outreach, individual level interventions, groups/sessions, preventative case management, counseling and other educational mediums to prevent the spread of HIV/AIDS.

The program provides referral assistance for substance abuse treatment and related services. Community education is provided to local area businesses and communities through group presentations.

For more information, contact the Health Program at (505) 877-7318 or send an e-mail to pit@ydinm.org

2. Youth Reaching Youth Street Outreach Program

Counties Operated In: Bernalillo

The street outreach program employs a Program Director, a Case Manager and two Youth Advocates that provide street outreach activities including: one on one interventions, information dissemination, meal sites, distribution of Life Packs (consisting of basic clothing, resource cards, non-perishable foods), crisis intervention, risk/harm reduction, skills training and assistance in accessing medical/dental care, transportation, counseling and residential services. The primary goal of the activities is to assist youth in establishing safer living conditions and in helping street youth stay physically, emotionally, and mentally healthy as they work towards getting off the streets.

The street outreach program operates seven days a week, 365 days a year with staff working late afternoons, evenings and weekends. Program staff target known geographic areas/locations where street youth congregate. Primary benefits of the program include: reduction of harm/exploitation of street youth; increased awareness and decreased reticence to access available services by street youth; the development of trusting relationships between street youth and service providers and assistance for youth in accessing safer living conditions.

For more information, contact Charlotte Gomez at (505) 877-7318 or send an e-mail to pit@ydinm.org

Other Outreach Satellite Locations

1. Homeless Prevention Program

6301 Central NW, Albuquerque, NM 87105

Counties Operated In: Bernalillo

An MFA funded initiative, Homeless Prevention provides rental and utilities shut off financial assistance for individuals/families that are facing eviction and/or utility shut off due to non-payment. An application process is required to determine eligibility for funds. A total maximum fund allowed per individual is $500.00.

For more information, contact Andrea Kepple at (505) 831-6038 or send an e-mail to pit@ydinm.org

2. Neutral Corner

118 Dartmouth SE, Albuquerque, NM 87106

Counties Operated In: Bernalillo

Neutral Corner provides supervised visitation and exchange services for families going through separation and/or divorce. With the help of a magnetic locking door system, YDI staff safely observe the transfer of children from one parent to another. This allows children a brief period of adjustment, the comfort of not witnessing combative situations and the opportunity to greet each parent enthusiastically.

Contact between a parent and child/children takes place under the watchful eye of YDI's staff. When allegations of neglect, physical, sexual or substance abuse occurs, careful supervision in a protected environment is necessary.

Staff ensures healthy interactions and activities and encourages quality time between parents and their children. A comprehensive visitation report form is completed for each visit.

For more information, contact Kelley Tester, Program Director at (505) 255-0007 or send an e-mail to pit@ydinm.org.

3. Project Achieve

Ernie Pyle Middle School
1820 Valdora SW, Albuquerque, NM 87105

Counties Operated In: Bernalillo

Project Achieve is a dropout prevention program for middle school students. The dropout prevention services include: classroom instruction in English, academic and career guidance, work experience, employability skills training, life skills education and post-secondary exploration. The services may include, but are not limited to, substance abuse prevention and rehabilitation, counseling and mentoring. The program also has a leadership development component that is designed to identify those at-risk students that have positive leadership potential. The intent is to develop that leadership through positive constructive activities.

For more information, contact Lynda Moore, Clinical Director at (505) 873-1604 or send an e-mail to pit@ydinm.org.

4. Wise Men/Wise Women Mentoring Initiatives, Mentoring Children of Prisoners (MCOPS) Program, Alamosa Mentoring Program

5005 4th Street NW, Albuquerque, NM 87102

Counties Operated In: Bernalillo

Wise Men & Women Mentorship Program is a school-based, school-year program that helps children and youth, ages 6-14, build a strong character, achieve positive self-esteem, and create solutions to their everyday problems with the help of a caring relationship with an adult volunteer mentor.

The program serves 14 elementary, 5 middle schools and 1 alternative school from September through May. Program staff are responsible for recruitment, screening, training, placing and follow-up of volunteers. Staff also act as volunteer school liaisons.

Volunteer support includes individual monthly contact, monthly roundtable meetings and a quarterly newsletter.

The Mentoring Children of Prisoners program is specifically designed to help children who have one or both of their parents incarcerated. The program recruits and trains adult mentors to be matched with these children. MCOPS is a community based program that assists children in establishing positive relationships within their family unit and in the community. The MCOP Program is in partnership with Big Brothers/Big Sisters.

The Alamosa Mentoring Program is a year-round program focusing on 4th grade students attending Alamosa Elementary School.

For more information, contact Sally Sosa, Program Director at (505) 271-2066 or send an e-mail to pit@ydinm.org

5. Alamosa Community Center

6900 Gonzalez SW, #E, Albuquerque, NM 87105

Counties Operated In: Bernalillo

Alamosa Community Center is in an Albuquerque city housing project whose youth had no structured recreational programs to deter them from involvement in gangs, vandalism, and serious crimes.

The Center's comprehensive program includes youth and family support services, job development, youth employment, gang intervention, community pride projects and a structured recreation program.

For more information, contact Ted Gallegos, Program Director at (505) 831-5109 or send an e-mail to pit@ydinm.org.

6. Next Step

6306 Central S.W., 87105

Counties Operated in: Bernalillo

The Next Step Program is a tutoring and social service program which provides instruction and social services to adolescents between the ages of 11- 21, who have been long-term suspended or dis-enrolled from school or who have dropped out of school. The aim of this program is to help motivate and guide these individuals back into a regular classroom setting or prepare them for the GED examination. Services include academic instruction, experiential learning and case management. Client's parents stay involved by attending scheduled monthly meetings.

For more information contact Raymond Caldwell, Case Manager, at (505) 352-3448, Mary Kamoss, Instructor, at (505) 352-3458 or send an email to pit@ydinm.org.

2. WORKFORCE LITERACY PROGRAM

6306 Central Avenue SW Albuquerque, NM 87105

Counties Operated In: Bernalillo

This program was designed to help those who are unemployed to upgrade their employability skills to find good jobs or those who are underemployed and want to advance in their present job. It will prepare participants for the workplace, with high quality training covering job readiness, workplace expectations, life and employability skills, workplace communication and problem solving and entry level occupational skills.

YDI is currently working with businesses locating to the Westside of Albuquerque and those that are currently hiring large applicant pools to recognize the participants that complete this training and consider them for job openings.

The training expands on the BEST curriculum and includes computer skills training, customer service skills training and employment skills remediation through Key Train.

Upon completion of the training, individuals will be assessed utilizing the Work Keys Employment System that measures the foundation skills required by most jobs. Participants will be awarded a New Mexico Career Readiness Certificate (CRC) upon successfully passing the Work Keys assessment. The CRC is a credential endorsed by the Governor of New Mexico that confirms to employers that an individual possesses the basic workplace skills required for common jobs.

The training is 4 weeks and is held every 8 weeks at the YDI Career Education Service Center.

7. NCLR AmeriCorps "LENS" Project
(Latinos Engaged in National Service)

6306 Central NW, Albuquerque, NM 87105

Counties Operated In: Bernalillo

The NCLR AmeriCorps Initiative:

NCLR seeks to increase the number of Latinos involved in national service in their communities. Research indicates that youth who become involved in national service are more likely to be involved as adults. Further, institutions such as schools, nonprofit organizations, governments, and churches help shape the civic engagement behaviors of tomorrow's adults. Youths' experiences shape their lifelong attitudes toward giving and being involved.

Now in its 11th year, the NCLR AmeriCorps*National Direct program helps reach these goals. AmeriCorps strengthens communities through projects that address education, public safety, the environment, and other unmet human needs. NCLR AmeriCorps members serve at local nonprofits, public agencies, and faith-based organizations, helping to build a culture of citizenship, service, and responsibility. Through their service, members gain valuable job skills and experience, and life skills like teamwork and communication; they learn to set goals, and to challenge themselves. Members also earn an education award to pursue a college education or pay back student loans. For more information regarding the NCLR AmeriCorps program visit their website at www.nclr.org/ameri-corps

Head Start/Early Head Start

901 Pennsylvania NE, Albuquerque, NM 87110

Now in its eleventh year of operation, YDI Early/Head Start experienced dramatic growth since it became the interim Head Start grantee in Bernalillo County in 1995, mirroring the growth of the Early/Head Start program across the country since President Johnson declared "War on Poverty" in 1964. Sergeant Shriver was named head of the War on Poverty program and in December 1964 he asked Dr. Robert Cooke, pediatrician at John Hopkins University, to head a steering committee of specialists in all fields to discuss what should be done for young children.

Designed to help break the cycle of poverty by providing preschool children of low-income families with a comprehensive program to meet their emotional, social, health, nutritional, educational, and physical needs, Head Start was launched, serving over 560,000 children and families across America in an eight-week summer pilot program. By 1984, Head Start had served 9,144,990 children and their families. In 1972, the Economic Opportunity Act was amended, mandating that at least 10 percent of the national enrollment of Head Start consist of handicapped children. In September 1995, the first Early Head Start grants were awarded to provide services for children birth to age three and pregnant women.

In 1996, YDI became the permanent grantee for Head Start in Bernalillo County. At that time, the Head Start program in Bernalillo County had 8 centers. Today, YDI's Head Start program operates 31 centers in three counties (Bernalillo, Rio Arriba and Taos Counties) with a total funded enrollment of 1,588 preschool children.

In 1998, YDI became the interim grantee for the Head Start program in Rio Arriba and Taos Counties and became the permanent grantee the following year. Since 1998, YDI has also begun offering Early Head Start services to 32 infants and toddlers and their families and 8 pregnant moms in Bernalillo County. Today, YDI Early Head Start has expanded to serving 52 infants and toddlers and 8 pregnant moms in Bernalillo County and 12 infants and toddlers and their families in Taos County.

How to apply

You are eligible for Head Start if your child(ren) are between 3 and 5 years old and you meet the Federal income guidelines. The third birthday must occur before September 1st of the school year for which you are applying. Your child(ren) is eligible for Early Head Start at six months of age and will be able to transition into Head Start when he/she turns 3 years old. If you are pregnant, you are welcome to apply to the pregnant moms program. To schedule and appointment with one of our Service Specialists to complete an application, please call one of the following centers, or you may call the Administrative office to be directed to the center nearest to you.

4. Con Alma/General Mills "Fit for Fun:

901 Pennsylvania NE, Albuquerque, NM 87110

This initiative is a childhood obesity prevention and intervention program that is funded by the Con Alma Foundation and General Mills. This program aims to address obesity in low income, preschool children by providing case management services, incorporating physical activities in preschool curriculum, and developing healthy eating habits. Another objective of this initiative is to work collaboratively with the whole family by positively incorporating more healthy lifestyles changes that reduce the risk of childhood obesity, through nutrition training, physical activities and healthy lifestyles seminars.

5. UCLA Johnson & Johnson: Health Initiative

901 Pennsylvania NE, Albuquerque, NM 87110

YDI is one of the recipients of funding from Johnson & Johnson and UCLA Anderson to launch a nationwide health care training for Head Start parents. The goal of this program is to educate Head Start parents so that they can properly manage the health care needs of their children. It also provides Head Start agencies with the tools and the resources to lead more effective health care training programs. The Health Care Institute is designed to better prepare parents to address the health care needs of their children. The training also strives to provide Head Start agencies tools and the resources to lead an effective health care training program through empowerment and dissemination of knowledge.

The objectives of this initiative are:

- To provide training and information to participating Head Start agencies for the successful implementation of health care literacy programs to their families.
- To enable Head Start parents to become better caregivers to their children by improving their health care knowledge and parenting skills.
- To empower Head Start parents to become better informed decision makers for the health care needs of their children.
- To enhance the self esteem and confidence of the Head Start parents in meeting their parental objectives.
- To actively contribute to the reduction of increasing health care costs in the United States.

For more information about this exciting program, please call the YDI Head Start Health Manager at (505) 268-0024.

6. SPARK: Transition Collaborative

901 Pennsylvania NE, Albuquerque, NM 87110

YDI Head Start participates in the SPARK (Supporting Partnerships to Assure Ready Kids) Transition Initiative. NM SPARK is an initiative of the New Mexico Community Foundation funded by a grant from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation. The goal of the NM SPARK Initiative is to enhance the way communities work together to better transition children into kindergarten. The YDI Head Start sites participating in SPARK are Los Padillas, Mary Ann Binford, Kirtland and Espanola.

7. Bank of America: Dual Language Initiative

901 Pennsylvania NE, Albuquerque, NM 87110

Several of YDI Head Start's classrooms provide dual language instruction to the children. The program provides a 50/50 model where half of the day is taught in English and the other half in Spanish for those classrooms where a majority of the children are monolingual Spanish-speakers. Two-way immersion education is a dynamic form of education that holds great promise for developing high levels of academic achievement, bilingualism and cross-cultural awareness among participating children.
